Settler Terrorism and Plans to Uproot the People of Palestine

Condemnations Without Deterrence and Rulers Without Action!

(Translated)

The crimes of settlers are escalating in the villages and towns of the West Bank, ranging from burning homes and vehicles, assaulting people, terrorising women and children, and vandalising property, to attacking agricultural lands, uprooting trees, and seizing land. These attacks come within the context of a settlement project aimed at making life increasingly difficult for the people of the West Bank and pushing them to abandon their land and leave their villages. This was once again demonstrated by the recent attacks targeting three villages in Ramallah Governorate, where settlers set fire to a number of vehicles, in a scene that sums up the policy of systematic intimidation. These are practices that serve the policies of settlement expansion and forced displacement, as well as the dreams of colonial expansion put forward by Zionist movements under the title of "Greater Israel". This makes settler terrorism a tool on the ground for imposing facts on the land.

What is noticeable about the international system's reactions to these crimes is that they do not go beyond the circle of condemnation, expressions of concern, and calls for restraint, despite their growing scale, without being accompanied by practical measures that put an end to the settlers' lawlessness. For condemnation that is not followed by genuine accountability does not deter a criminal or protect a victim. There is no value in a political or human-rights leader describing these attacks as terrorism, or in an American official calling for legislation to punish those involved in them, while their countries continue to support the Jewish entity with all the means of life, strength, and arrogance. This is particularly so because settler terrorism is inseparable from the system of the Jewish entity, which has provided it with an environment of support and protection, strengthened its influence, and enabled it to expand and carry out attacks. Therefore, reducing the problem to the settlers, or portraying it as a deviation from the general conduct of the Jewish entity, is a major deception.

In contrast to these crimes, the silence of the Muslim rulers and the absence of serious action to support the people of Palestine stand out, as though Palestine were merely a matter for seasonal statements or speeches delivered on special occasions!

What is happening in the West Bank reveals that its people do not need more supporters who are content merely to describe their suffering. Rather, they need the attacks against them to be stopped and their suffering to be brought to an end through action that rises to the level of responsibility towards them. Condemnations, no matter how loudly voiced, will remain empty unless the armies of the Ummah take action to end the tragedy of the people of Palestine and uproot the Jewish entity.

The enormous military capabilities possessed by the Islamic Ummah place upon it the responsibility of translating these capabilities into genuine support, thereby discharging its duty before Allah. Allah Almighty said: ﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مَا لَكُمْ إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمُ انفِرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ اثَّاقَلْتُمْ إِلَى الْأَرْضِ أَرَضِيتُم بِالْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا مِنَ الْآخِرَةِ فَمَا مَتَاعُ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا فِي الْآخِرَةِ إِلَّا قَلِيلٌ﴾ "O you who have believed, what is [the matter] with you that, when you are told to go forth in the cause of Allah, you adhere heavily to the earth? Are you satisfied with the life of this world rather than the Hereafter? But what is the enjoyment of worldly life compared to the Hereafter except a [very] little." [At-Tawbah:38]

And to the armies of the Ummah, its officers, and its commanders, we say: ﴿انفِرُوا خِفَافًا وَثِقَالًا وَجَاهِدُوا بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنفُسِكُمْ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ ذَٰلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن كُنتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ﴾ "Go forth, whether light or heavy, and strive with your wealth and your lives in the cause of Allah. That is better for you, if you only knew." [At-Tawbah:41]
