Cowboy Obama Regards Pakistan's Soil as a Shooting Range, Whilst Raheel Fails on His Watch

US President Barack Obama said on 23 May 2016 that the 21 May drone strike that killed Taliban leader Mullah Akhtar Mansour was also “a clear signal to the Taliban and others” that the United States would not allow such people to operate freely. Even though the drone attack was a flagrant violation of Pakistan's sovereignty, like the attacks on Abbotabad, Hangu and Salalah previously, there was only one sentence about Pakistan in his official statement, saying: “We will work on shared objectives with Pakistan, where terrorists that threaten all our nations must be denied safe haven.” As for Chief of Army Staff (COAS) of the world's largest Muslim armed forces, a full days after the US attack on American soil, General Raheel Sharif ventured to express serious concerns over the US drone strike in Balochistan in a meeting with United States (US) Ambassador to Pakistan David Hale on 25 May.

Just like General Kayani during the US attack in Abbotabad, General Raheel has failed miserably on his watch. As for registering protest with the Ambassador, it is far too little and too late and the weak stand has been noticed by the people in general and the armed forces in particular. Indignation has boiled over to anger over the long days since the attack, with widespread discussion regarding the regime's failure over the US arrogant attack.

Rulers like Kayani and Raheel will always fail because their hesitation comes from the fact that they have committed Pakistan to an alliance with America, even though it is an open enemy to Islam and Muslims and perpetrates acts of hostility regularly. They serve as a reminder of the urgent need for a Khaleefah Rashid to manage the affairs of the Muslims by Islam. Under Islam, America would be treated according to its reality, a belligerently hostile state. Its officials would be removed from Pakistan's soil, including its ambassadors and military liaisons. Its embassy and consulate would be sealed. Its drone teams, intelligence

“It is only as regards those who fought against you on account of Deen, and have driven you out of your homes, and helped to drive you out, that Allah forbids you to befriend them, then such are the Zalimoon.” [Surah Al-Mumtahinah 60: 9]

Indian-Iranian Strengthening of Ties Undermines the Ummah's Security

India agreed on 23 May 2016 to finance the development of an Iranian port as a trading hub, as Prime Minister Narendra Modi sought to revive economic ties with Tehran after the lifting of sanctions. The Indian leader met Iranian officials including supreme leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei and President Hassan Rouhani during a visit that he said would mark “a new chapter in our strategic partnership”. Modi and Rouhani oversaw the signing of a memorandum of understanding for the provision of a line of credit from India’s EXIM Bank to develop Iran’s southern port of Chabahar, on the Gulf of Oman. Rouhani hailed the project, saying it could become a “great symbol of cooperation between Iran and India”.

The strengthening of ties between India and Iran is a dagger in the back of the Muslims of Pakistan, Afghanistan and Occupied Kashmir. India's occupation of Kashmir, its extensive malicious presence in Afghanistan and its involvement in inciting instability throughout Pakistan are well known. Rather than Iran treating the Hindu State as an enemy state, it is embracing the mushrikeen, whilst all the time maintaining the pretence of being "Islamic" and calling for brotherly ties with Muslim states.

The re-establishment of the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of the Prophethood will end the days of lip-service to Islam that conceals hypocrisy and treachery against Muslims. The Khaleefah Rashid will work to eradicate all sectarian and ethnic bigotry and will call openly for the unification of all Muslim states, as a single powerful state to face enemy state. remember the favour that Allah has bestowed upon you, for you used to be enemies to each other but Allah joined your hearts together, so that you became brothers in Islam by His Favour. And you were on the pit of a fire and He saved you from it. [Surah Aali Imran 3:103]

More Blood Money to Burn Pakistan's Armed Forces for Obama's War

Dawn reported on 25 May 2016, "The US Senate Armed Services Committee has approved a proposal to set up a new fund to reimburse Pakistan for its efforts in the war against terror." The committee’s chairman, Senator John McCain, introduced the bill, which sets aside up to $800 million for reimbursing Pakistan and the proposal is included in the Senate version of the National Defence Authorisation Act, 2017, passed on May 18. And $300m is linked to taking action against the Haqqani network which has challenged the foreign occupation of Afghanistan effectively, shaking the US military. Another bill, passed by the House of Representatives last week, linked $450m from a total of $900m proposed for Pakistan to take action against the Haqqani network.

America knows the great capability of Pakistan's armed forces in ending foreign occupation of Muslim Land. It observed that when the Soviet Union invaded Afghanistan, the highly capable intelligence of Pakistan's armed forces, the Inter-Services Intelligence (ISI), organized and enabled the tribal fighters against the Russian occupation, bloodying Russia's nose such that she withdrew completely and never dared to return since. Now that America itself invaded Afghanistan, Pakistan's armed forces have the ability to drive her out of the region forever. America also knows that North Waziristan is the key to Pakistan's strategic depth in the region, protecting its lands and people from harm. In order to simultaneously divide the Muslims, sink the armed forces into a quagmire of civil war and amputate Pakistan's strategic depth, America specifically intensified demands for operations in North Waziristan, the base of the Haqqani network, since September 2011.

As for the Raheel-Nawaz regime, it has loyally assisted the Americans every step of the way. Until today, it keeps the door open for America's terrorist network within Pakistan, allowing its personnel to roam freely in the sensitive areas to gather information for attacks, freeing its spies whenever they are caught and securing its lairs, which are found in the residential areas as well as military areas. Then, the traitorous regime plays an active role in blackening the reputation of Jihad, acting as mouthpieces for the Americans, deliberately mixing up the sincere Mujahideen who fight the Americans with those shadowy figures that attack the armed forces. On Wednesday 25 June 2014, the Prime Minister's Adviser on National Security and Foreign Affairs, Sartaj Aziz, declared, "There is no distinction between the good Taliban and bad Taliban and the military operation was being conducted across the board." Then on 26 June 2014, Inter-Services Public Relations (ISPR) Director General, Major General Asim Saleem Bajwa, said, "For the military, there will be no discrimination among Tehreek-i-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) groups or Haqqani network, all terror groups are going to be eliminated." And finally this criminal regime deploys our armed forces and security personnel in the tribal areas, to fight their own Muslim brothers in a miserable war of Fitnah, burning pure Muslim blood on both sides as a fuel to secure America's Raj and plunging the people of the region into homelessness and despair! And this is the real double game against our armed forces.

Eradicate the Durand Line to Unify Muslims Against the Crusaders

Afghan authorities have closed the Angoor Adda border crossing in South Waziristan hours after it was handed over to them, it emerged on 24 May 2016. The neighbouring country also claimed about 10km inside Pakistan as its territory and demanded its control, officials and sources said. The border closure has caused great inconvenience to thousands of people, including women and children, who have found themselves stranded in the scorching heat amid hundreds of truck and trailers loaded with goods disallowed by the Afghan authorities to cross the border. "We have taken over the control of Bab-i-Waziristan post [Angoor Adda border crossing] where the Afghan flag has been hoisted to herald the development," an Afghan diplomatic official posted at the post told Dawn.

Indeed, the Muslims must not have any regard whatsoever for the borders that divide them. The Durand Line, separating Afghanistan from us, was made by the British Raj in 1893 during its occupation of the Indian Subcontinent, after facing crushing blows at the hands of the tribal fighters that live on either side of the Durand Line until today. The Durand Line is part of the colonialist "divide and rule" policy. It is this division of Muslims that allowed the British to continue their occupation until 1947. It is this division that allowed Soviet Russia to occupy Afghanistan. It is this division that assisted America in occupying Afghanistan in 2001 and remain there, after a limited withdrawal.

Islam mandates that the Muslim Lands are one, with one Imam and one armed forces. The Khilafah (Caliphate) upon the method of the Prophethood will soon inshaaAllah eradicate all borders between Muslim Lands and unify the Muslims' armed forces and tribal fighters as a vast and powerful fighting force against the enemy. It will initiate Jihad for the liberation of Afghanistan from the Americans, Kashmir from the Indians and Palestine from the Jewish state. For Allah (swt) is our Lord, whilst the Kuffar have none to support them
"Do not weaken nor grieve, for you will overcome them if you are (indeed) believers."
[Surah Aali-Imran 3:139]
