The Regime in Jordan's Condemnation of the Attacks by the Jews on Al-Aqsa and the Worshipers is a Betrayal of the Ummah and a Call for the Jewish Entity to Persist in Aggression

(Translated)

The soldiers of the cowardly Jewish entity stormed Al-Aqsa Mosque at dawn on Friday the 14th of Ramadan and assaulted the worshipers, those in l'tikaf and those stationed to guard Al-Aqsa (Al-Murabitoon), with batons and tear gas. They desecrated the masjid and trampled over the prayer carpet with their boots, they broke the limbs of the worshipers and attacked women. With the looming threat that the settlers will desecrate the Aqsa and slaughter their sacrifices, in an attempt to take control on the ground and to abuse Muslims.

This time the regime in Jordan sought only to condemn this, "in the strongest terms!" In the words of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Expatriate Affairs, as the official spokesman for the ministry, Ambassador Haitham Abu Al-Ful, he said: "The storming of the blessed Al-Aqsa Mosque / the Holy Mosque and the attack on it and on worshipers is a flagrant violation, and it is a condemnable and unacceptable behaviour, calling on the 'Israeli' authorities to expel the police and forces from the Al-Haram immediately."

If the description of the regime that claims to be the custodian of the sacred places and Al-Aqsa against the attacks of the Jews was true, and if really this behaviour was condemned and rejected by it, it would have severed relations and terminated humiliating treaties with the Jewish entity, and halted all agreements that provide it with life, and enable it to carry out more attacks. In addition, it would have mobilized the Ummah's armies to remove this usurping entity, who are capable of doing so and yearn for it. But there is no hope in the colonial subordinating regimes that demand the Jewish authorities to remove their police from Al-Aqsa, while they know that this is just absurd, and that the only language that the Jews understand is the language of force and weapons that terrifies and excludes them not only from Al-Aqsa Mosque, but from the whole of Palestine. Allah (swt) said: ﴿وَأَخْرِجُوهُمْ مِّنْ حَيْثُ أَخْرَجُوكُمْ﴾ "...and expel them from wherever they have expelled you" [Al-Baqara: 191].

O Honorable Ummah... O People in Jordan

The puppet regimes have been exposed, and their failure to support Palestine and its people and to liberate Al-Aqsa Mosque is clear, not only in the criminal assault today on Al-Aqsa Mosque and the worshipers in it, but from a long time ago. Stones almost erupted and uttered from the repetition of these attacks by the forces of the Jews and their herds of settlers, and the shameful, humiliating persistence of the Jordanian regime in its relations with Jews, while it claims dignity, sovereignty and guardianship! You have no choice but to openly declare your rejection of these regimes, which may mobilize your armies that are from you, to protect your people, your sanctities, and your land, and not to protect the Jews, their entity, and the regimes that they are affiliated to. This will make you at the forefront of fulfilling the promise of Allah (swt) and the glad-tidings of His Messenger (saw) to liberate Al-Quds and Masra (site of Al-Isra') of the Messenger (saw).
